The Teachings

A Partial Teaching on Sin

Discourse

Qn. What are the implications of the term “Violation of The Teachings”?

Ans. When an act [(speech), (writing), (physical acts of body), (physical acts of appendages), (physical acts through aids), (avoidance of duty)] goes against the letter or spirit of The Teachings, it is termed as a violation.

1. A violation occurs whenever an individual inflicts harm upon:
    a. Self
        i. Atma
        ii. Body
        iii. Mind
    b. Another
        i. Atma
        ii. Body
        iii. Mind
    c. Property
        i. Environmental
        ii. Belonging to another person
        iii. Societal property.
2. A violation occurs whenever a group inflicts harm upon:
    a. Itself through harm on
        i. Atma
        ii. Body
        iii. Mind
    b. Another group
        i. Atma
        ii. Body
        iii. Mind
    c. Property

        i. Environmental
        ii. Belonging to another person
        iii. Societal property
3. A violation occurs whenever Society inflicts harm upon
    a. Individual Members
        i. Atma
        ii. Body
        iii. Mind
    b. Another society's individual members
        i. Atma
        ii. Body
        iii. Mind
    c. Property
        i. Environmental
        ii. Belonging to another society
        iii. Societal property
4. A violation occurs when an Atma or body+mind given to that Atma ignores a matured Request made by the Atma, which has been granted by GOD.
5. A violation occurs when an Atma or body+mind disregards a granted request.
6. A violation occurs when an Atma or body+mind denies a granted request.
7. A violation occurs when the given body+mind tells a lie or untruth, which causes harm.
8. A violation occurs when the body+mind steals something.
9. A violation occurs when the body+mind denies a truth.
10. Dishonour is greater and consequences will be greater on the body+mind when the body+mind disregards, denies or ignores the granted request after being informed.
11. When the individual Atma or body+mind disregards, denies or ignores the duties laid upon each by The Teachings.
12. Ignorance of the duties laid upon the individual by The Teachings is not an excuse.
13. To abuse the natural resources and facilities given by GOD through The GIFT is a sin.
14. When an individual acquires something and does not distribute equally to the TEN Right Holders, it is a sin.
15. Anything that is earned, acquired and received is not distributed equally in sequence to the TEN Right Holders is a sin.
16. Doing – an act amounting to sin.

17. Abuse is a sin.
18. Whatever is acquired is a sin if The LAW of The TENTH Part is not obeyed.
19. Each instance of a harm is a separate sin.

Effects of Sin

1. The First Sin creates a thin film, which settles on an Atma and extends along all the filaments to each cell of the body.
2. The second sin creates the second layer, which on coming in contact with the first layer on the Atma contracts, thus pulling out the filament from each cell.
3. The subsequent layers will eventually form the crust around the Atma.
4. To remove each single layer, Atma has to pass through a Jooni in regret.
5. Every instance of sin initiates a negative counter in the account of the Atma whose body+mind has committed that sin.
6. Due to sin, the effects of negative counter are imposed on the Atma as well as body+mind.
7. The readings of the negative counters of an accounting year are calculated and the tenth part of the total reading is imposed as stress on the body+mind.

Transit

One transit cleans one layer of sin, thus the sum total of all Joonis (transits) enables that Atma to become clean and pure and earn the right to another Janam.

Hell

Hell consists of all the Joonis through which the Atma is going through (Hell is not a single Jooni).

OMNMNKAAAR

Each recitation of OMNMNKAAAR stops one negative counter thus reducing the total

transits that the Atma will have to face.

Action Plan

As long as there is only one sin, the Atma is in control of body+mind.
Control by the Atma over the body+mind is lost when the body+mind commits the second sin.
The lesser the number of sins committed by the body+mind, the better for the Atma.
Recite OMNMNKAAAR as many times as you can daily.
